

ABOUT ME

Professional voiceover artist with over 20 years of experience in advertising, radio, television and digital media.

I have worked with renowned brands in the U.S. Hispanic market and Latin America, providing my voice to create effective and memorable campaigns.

I am known for my versatility in voice and my ability to connect with the audience through my interpretation.

I am also dedicated to teaching, training voice talents and giving talks and workshops on the importance of emotions and the human voice in advertising.
